Pastor's Column

Loss, Lent & Renewal in Christ

Sometimes part of life involves loss. It can be we lose our youth to older age, or perhaps the loss of a loved one. In the world, in the Russian and Ukrainian conflict there are losses on both sides. And we pray for their sad families.

Our St. Brendan family especially our school had a sad moment when one of our teachers, Ms. Meghan Ray returned to God. It was/is a sad time for parents, teachers, staff, and students alike. We might ask "Why would God want this person at this time?" As we reflect, we realize everyone who has lost a loved one has this same sentiment. So, we turn to God and we ultimately realize that we had the privilege of knowing this wonderful person in life. Some knew her better; some knew her less. Every family who endures loss feels a sadness and ultimately in the healing process realizes the privilege we had to know each person in our lives. So, we turn to God with prayer for healing and thanksgiving. We trust in his mercy for all our loved ones and hopefully we do so also for people we do not know.

Meghan Ray

St. Brendan Faculty Member 2017-2022

Beloved daughter, teacher, colleague, coach, and friend.

*May the road rise up to meet you.
May the wind be always at your back.
May the sun shine warm upon your face;
the rains fall soft upon your fields until we meet again, may God hold you in the palm of His hand.*

On behalf of the entire St. Brendan Community, we offer our sincere condolences on our loss to the immediate and extended family of Meghan Ray. We were so fortunate God gave us the light of her presence and loving energy as a teacher, coach, and friend even for a short while. A memorial mass celebrating Meghan's life will be held at St. Brendan's on Thursday, March 24th at 11 am. Funeral services will be held at her family home in Ventura County.

May God keep you all safe and don't forget to say "I love you" to everyone in your lives when you can. It need not be in words, but in caring for one another or even praying for people many miles away.

Fr. Mike

Third Sunday in Lent

HOLY GROUND

Moses met God in a most astounding way in the bush that was burning but not consumed by fire. Moses clearly had a powerful encounter with the Lord. He even felt bold enough to ask God's name, something unheard of among his people at the time—God's name was unspeakable. Moses stood on holy ground. Do we not also stand on holy ground? As people who are created in God's image and drawn to Christ through the waters of Baptism, we have been filled with God's grace and goodness. The ground of our lives is holy. Lent is a time when we are called to open our minds and hearts to Christ, rely on God's patient mercy, and to grow as God's holy people.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The LORD God appears to Moses and directs him to go and deliver the Israelites from Egypt (Exodus 3:1-8a, 13-15) or Exodus 17:3-7.

Psalm — The Lord is kind and merciful (Psalm 103) or Psalm 95.

Second Reading — We are not to grumble like the people with Moses in the desert (1 Corinthians 10:1-6, 10-12) or Romans 5:1-2, 5-8.

Gospel — If you do not repent, you will all perish (Luke 13:1-9) or John 4:5-42 [5-15, 19b-26, 39a, 40-42].

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Third Sunday of Lent

O God, author of every mercy and of all goodness, who in fasting, prayer and almsgiving have shown us a remedy for sin, look graciously on this confession of our lowliness, that we, who are bowed down by our conscience, may always be lifted up by your mercy. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

PRIDE

What better proof of your pride could you have given than to claim you were not proud?

—St. John Climacus

DAMAGE

Hatred does more damage to the person in whom it is stored than to the person on whom it is poured.

—Anonymous

FORGIVENESS

Those who cannot forgive others break the bridge over which they themselves must pass.

—Confucius

DIRECTION

The great thing in this world is not so much where we are, but in what direction we are going.

—Oliver Wendell Holmes

*Let us pray
for the people of Ukraine*

May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that you may abound in hope in the power of the Holy Spirit.

—Romans 15:13

Around the Archdiocese & World

Your help is needed in Ukraine where there are already more than 2.9 million people in need of assistance.

There is great risk of additional suffering both within Ukraine and for those who are fleeing to neighboring countries for safety. CRS and our partners need immediate support to meet both ongoing needs as the situation intensifies.

Years of conflict along the eastern border have already displaced 1.3 million people from their homes and claimed 14,000 lives and now 2 million people have fled Ukraine. Throughout this time, Caritas Ukraine, with support from CRS, has been providing emergency relief and recovery.

CRS and Caritas partners on the ground are preparing across Ukraine and in bordering countries, ready to provide safe shelter, hot meals, hygiene supplies, transport to safe areas, counseling support and more.

The situation there is rapidly unfolding, and we could not do this work without your help. When you donate, you provide immediate assistance for your Ukrainian sisters and brothers affected by this crisis.in need of assistance!

Your prayers and support will make so much difference. Please give a vital gift today!
